

CPEC

California Postsecondary Education Commission

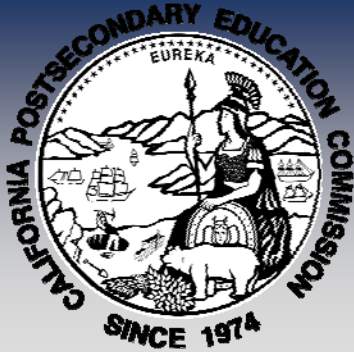

Proposal to Establish New Facility: North Palomar Educational Center

Presented By
Jessika N. Jones

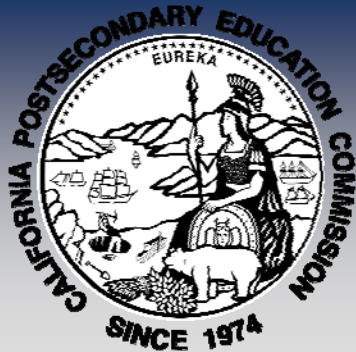

Palomar Community College District

- North San Diego County
- 1 main campus in San Marcos
- 9 Off-campus centers
- Enrolls over 30,000 students

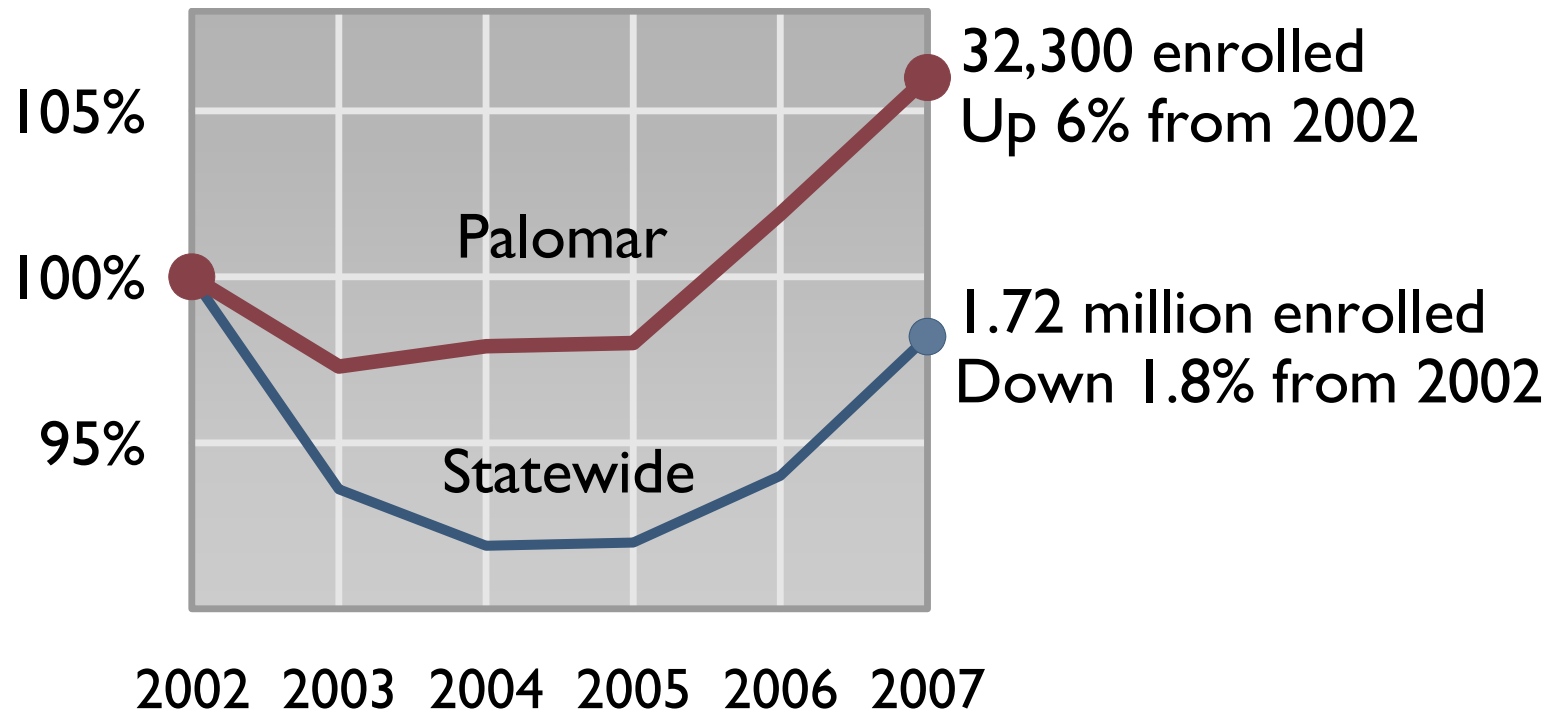

Regional Population Growth

- 24% increase in adult population between 1990 and 2000
- Additional 27% increase by 2020
- Projected district enrollment 47,000 by 2022

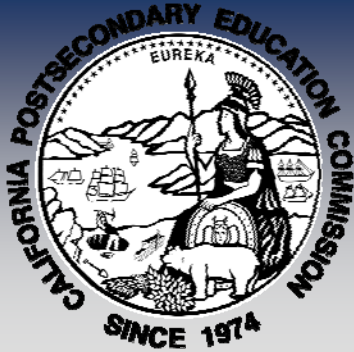

Enrollment Growth

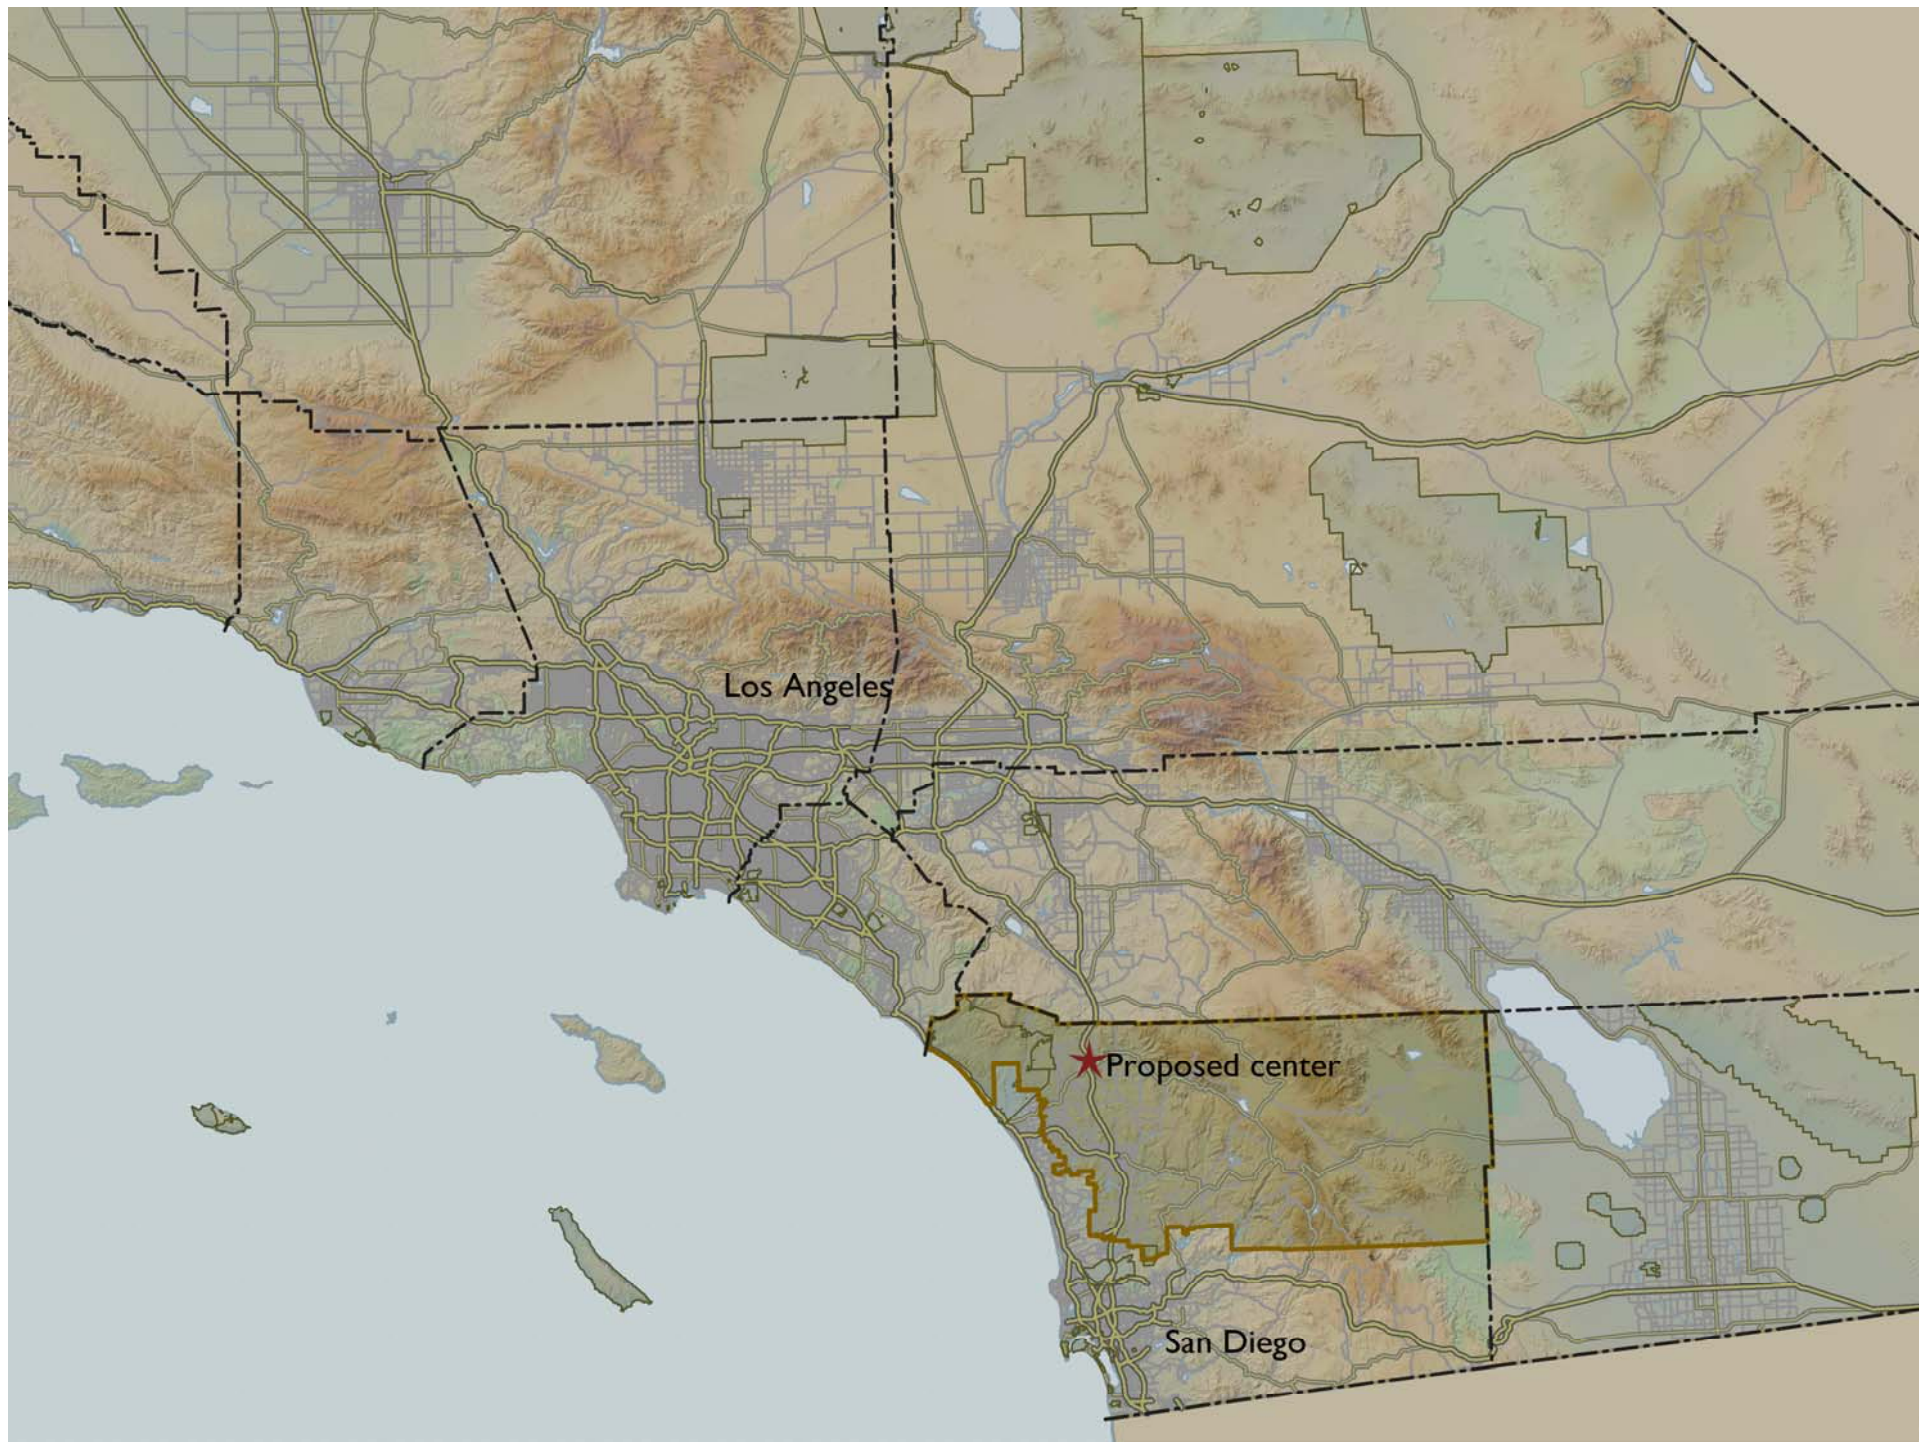

Palomar's Master Plan

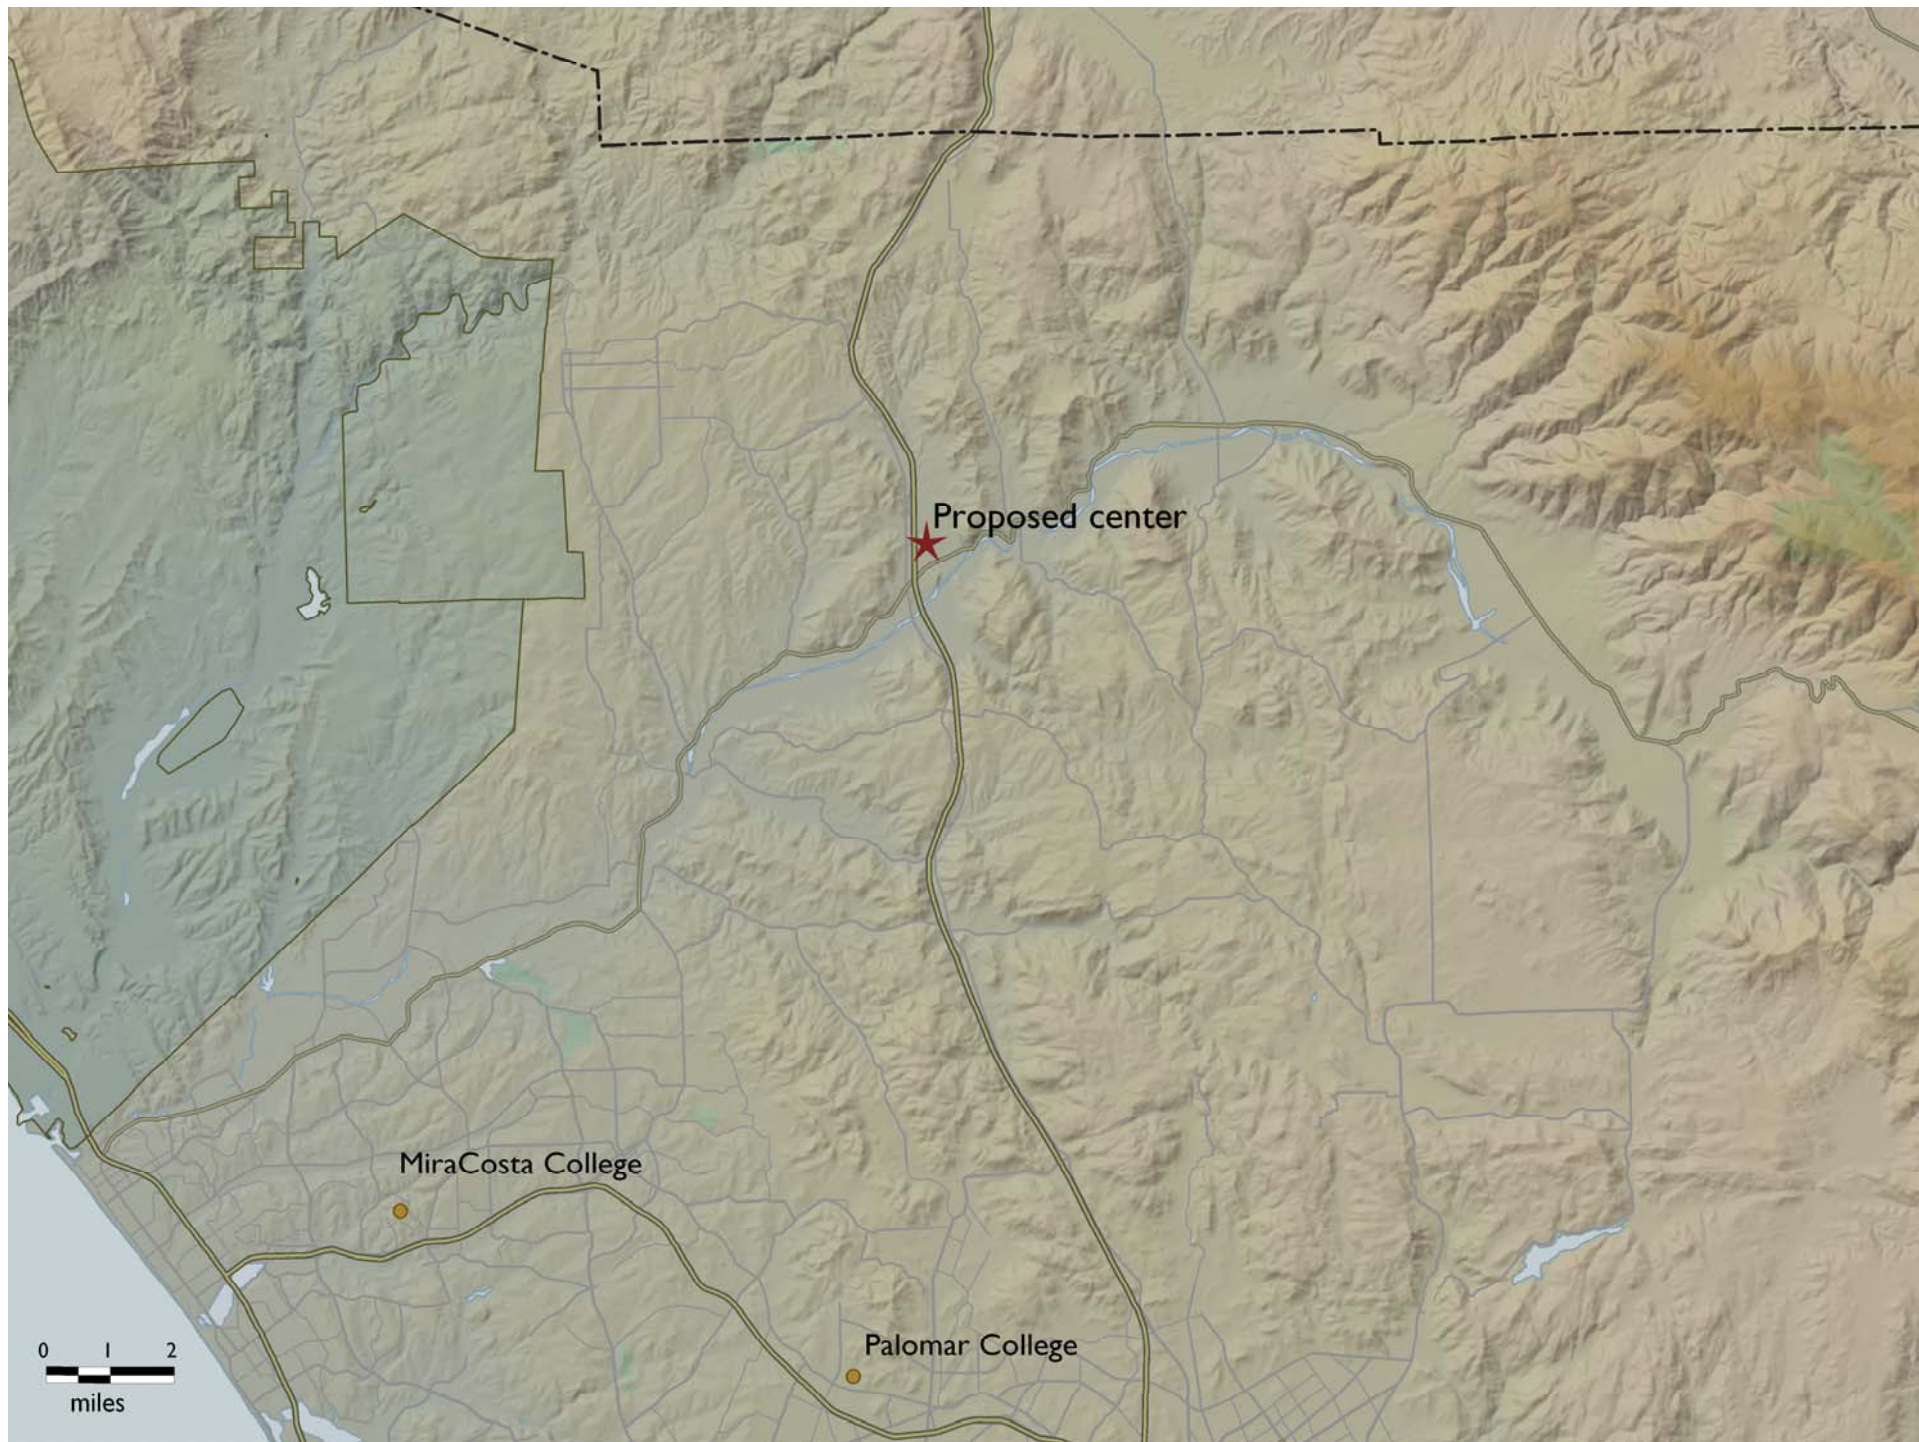

- Comprehensive district wide plan for addressing growth
- $694 million voter-approved bond

Proposed North Center Site

- Located near Fallbrook
- 20 miles north of Palomar College
- 85 acres for new center

Recommendation for Approval

- The proposal meets all seven CPEC criteria for approval
- The district's long-term planning efforts
- Strong support from district voters